Château Pontet Canet, Pauillac 5e cru classé rouge

Region: Bordeaux - Pauillac
Erzeuger: Château Pontet Canet - Pauillac

Rebsorten: Cabernet Franc, Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Petit Verdot
Bestell-Nr.: FBX200106

Parker: „One can't say enough about the extraordinary quality proprietor Alfred Tesseron has achieved at Pontet-Canet over the last decade. The 2006 is another massive wine that may be as backward and concentrated as its nearby neighbor, Mouton Rothschild. Boasting a dense purple/black color in addition to aromas of creme de cassis, incense, burning embers/charcoal, and pain grille, it is monstrous in the mouth with huge flavor concentration, extremely high tannins, and significant extract. Tesseron's goal appears to be a 50+ year wine. The 2006 requires a decade of patience. Anticipated maturity: 2016-2040+. 93-95 Punkte.”
Tanzer: „(60% cabernet sauvignon, 33% merlot, 5% cabernet franc and 2% petit verdot) Bright ruby. Sexy, high-pitched nose offers blueberry, violet, chocolate, minerals and flowers. At once rich and youthfully austere, but with a depth and complexity to its flavors of cassis, violet, minerals and menthol that are rare for the vintage. Finishes with substantial but very fine, supple tannins and lingering notes of cassis, blueberry and bitter chocolate. This very rich but seriously structured wine is built for a long life in bottle. 91-94 points.”
Wine Spectator: „Big and rich, with lots of round and velvety tannins. Full-bodied and very ripe, with a long flavorful finish. A beauty. Voluptuous for the vintage, with lots of currant and berry character. 92-94 Punkte.”
René Gabriel, WeinWisser: „(60% Cabernet Sauvignon, 33% Merlot, 5% Cabernet Franc, 2% Petit Verdot ; Ertrag 35 hl/ha) : Schon beim Einschenken eine beindruckende Farbe, Violett-Schwarz. Explosives Bouquet, Cassis in verschwenderischer Form, tiefe Würznoten, Rauch, Lakritze, dicht, aber auch kompakt, Dörrbananen im Hintergrund. Auch im Gaumen dicht, gut stützende Tannine, wieder einen frischen, aromatischen Beerenton aufweisen, in der Adstringenz kräftig, fordernd, muskulös, an die alten, grossen Jahrgänge von Pontet-Canet erinnernd, sehr typisch, zur neuen Epoche des hervorragend geführten Weingutes passend, vielleicht immer etwas rustikal bleibend, deshalb ein sehr klassischer Cinquième. 18/20 Punkten.”
FEINSCHMECKER: „Dank beispielhafter Arbeit im Weinberg sehr gelungen.”
