Parker: „This extraordinary Mouton should turn out to be the finest they have made since the monumental 1982 and 1986. In early tastings, Mouton often seems to tag along behind the other first-growths. Yet in 2006, there is no question that the Baronne Philippine de Rothschild gave carte blanche authority to her talented administrator, Philippe Dalhuin, to turn up the heat in 2006. Yields were a tiny 32 hectoliters per hectare, the harvest took place between September 20 and October 15, and a minuscule 44% of the crop made it into the grand vin (the lowest percentage in more than half a century). The final blend of 87% Cabernet Sauvignon and 13% Merlot is unusually high in Cabernet Sauvignon, but it possesses Mouton’s hallmarks of pure creme de cassis and flowers in addition to a toasty oak character. Profoundly concentrated, super-textured, and rich, Mouton’s powerful, full-bodied 2006 is unquestionably a strong candidate for the “wine of the vintage.” Kudos to Mouton’s winemaking team for fashioning this brilliant wine. Anticipated maturity: -2050.” 96-100 Punkte Wine Spectator: „Gorgeous aromas of currant, raspberry and mineral. Full-bodied, with ultrafine tannins. Long and caressing, building on the palate. Very pretty, very elegant. Subtle and seductive. This could be better than 2005. Wait and see.” 95-100 Punkte Weinwisser: „87% Cabernet Sauvignon, 13% Merlot; so viel Cabernet wie seit langem nicht mehr): Sehr dunkles Weinrot mit violetten fast schwarzen Reflexen. Klassisches Mouton-Cassis Bouquet, dicht, füllig und süß, im Untergrund schwarze, getrocknete Beeren, Bounty Kokos, dunkle Pralinen, Kaffee-Dessertbohnen, mineralischer Touch, Terpentinnouancen, zu Kopf steigend. Im Gaumen erstaunlich saftige, feine und sehr elegante Gerbstoffe, seidige Textur, ausgeglichene Adstringenz, im Finale viel Würztöne, zarte Schokobitterkeit, wieder viel Cassis, strak dem 1994er gleichend, vielleicht mit einer Spur mehr Kraft, aber auch „nobler Arrogant“, geniale Länge. 19 Weinwisser-Punkte
